About the Kilnogue Estate and Hotel In an effort to preserve the heritage and beauty of the North Kerry countryside, Kilnogue Estate and Hotel is a family-run hotel which is by no means a large or grand establishment, but a cosy and welcoming place to stay. Situated at the front of the three-storey manor house, Kilnogue Hotel offers a comfortable and convenient base for visitors to the area, offering a range of facilities including a leisure centre, restaurant, lounge bar, free WiFi and free parking. Guests can also choose to use the award-winning spa on site. The family friendly hotel welcomes children of all ages and has a special room layout for them. There are plenty of toys and games at hand and children will also enjoy the novelty of finding some familiar toys in the guest rooms. Leisure facilities also include a games room, swimming pool, spa and a heated indoor swimming pool. The onsite leisure centre is open Monday to Sunday 9am to 9pm. History of Kilnogue The main manor house is situated on the estate has been in the possession of the Hilton-McGlinchey family for over 100 years. The house was originally built by Tadhg mac Ruaidhrí O'Sullivan in the late 15th century or early 16th century, and is located in the hamlet of Carran, in the north Kerry district. The house is believed to have been built using the stones from an old church of which ruins remain in the garden of the hotel. The house was transformed in the 19th century, and in 1912, it was purchased by the Hilton-McGlinchey family. The building was extended and improved over the years, and in 1968, it became the hotel we know today. The many rooms at the hotel have been designed in keeping with the original design and character of the building. The diverse landscape around Kilnogue's dramatic surroundings makes it a great venue for
