Is there an easy way to resize images on iOS? I know Photoshop's batch process is available via a plugin... is there something similar for the iPhone? A: On iOS you could use this: It should also work with images received via HTTP, for images that fit in RAM you could probably do it in a loop. Molecular, morphological and physiological responses of germinated Eugenia dysomera (Clusiaceae) seeds to drought and rewatering. Germination of perennial Eugenia dysomera is an important fruit crop in Mexico. Under drought conditions, the first plant to germinate is usually the most sensitive to the stress. Information on the mechanisms of seed germination of E. dysomera under water deficit is limited. Thus, we studied the morpho-physiological responses of E. dysomera seeds during imbibition. We showed that seed imbibition increased the percentage of permeable seeds and the duration of imbibition. We showed that high doses of exogenous abscisic acid (ABA) increased the percentage of permeable seeds. T-DNA insertion mutants of the ABA receptor (PYR/PYL/ 3e33713323
