Adobe.ESL is upgrading our workshop on working in solitary
- Shift out of the Lab (SOL) - that offers a practical and safe way of understanding work, training in being independent and not showing up against the walls, and working in collaboration. The first of these will be held on the 18th May and will start at 11am - 1pm.
We will be teaching about the following themes: How do we experience the psychological and physical stresses of lab work? How do we make ourselves safe when working in a space that is so focused on

our safety? How do we work in a team that is so focussed on individuality that it's nearly impossible to create a team identity and get things done? How do we learn about our own roles, personal strengths, gifts and weaknesses while working in lab groups? It is also a chance to hear from the senior staff of SAFE and discuss how we can all learn from each other. We'll also be collecting the photos taken at the photo wall from the first SOL and processing them for the SAFE community to see!

ESLs other workshop - How to work in groups (HG) - offers a practical approach to teaching about work, learning in groups and building a team identity so that we can become productive in our work. Participants are asked to think about some of their own experiences of how they made themselves safe, what strengths and gifts they can bring to a
